

Appointment of Officials at 5* and Senior Championship Events

What is your primary role as an Eventing official?

193 responses

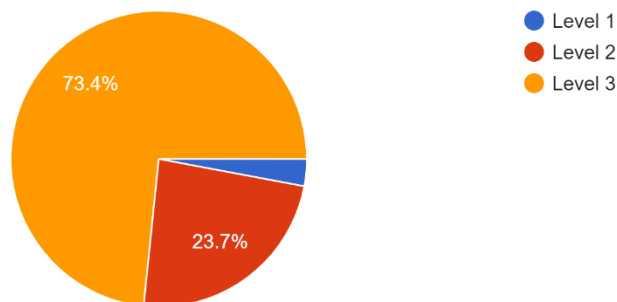

Other responses:

- Active as Judge, TD and Steward
- TD and Judge
- Coach
- USEF National Technical Delegate with intentions to get FEI license

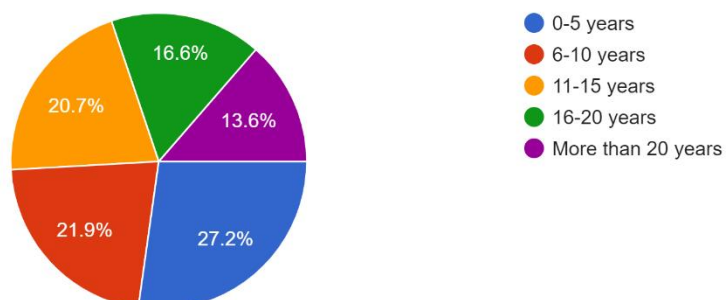

What is your current Level?

169 responses

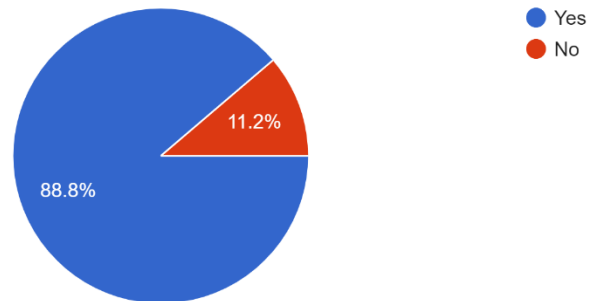

How long have you been qualified to officiate at your current Level?

169 responses

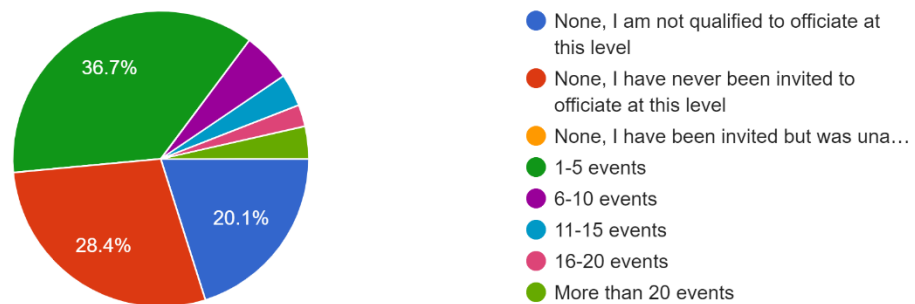

Are you interested in officiating at 5* and Senior Championship events?

169 responses

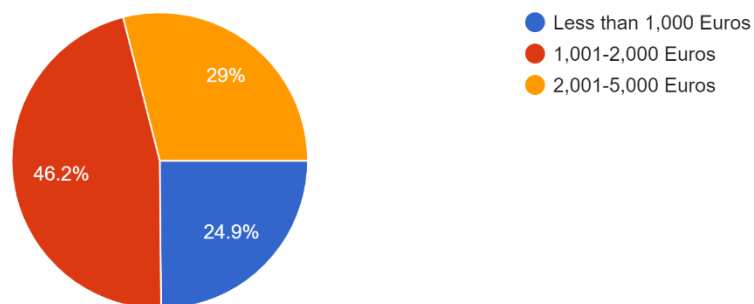

At how many 5* and Senior Championship events have you officiated?

169 responses

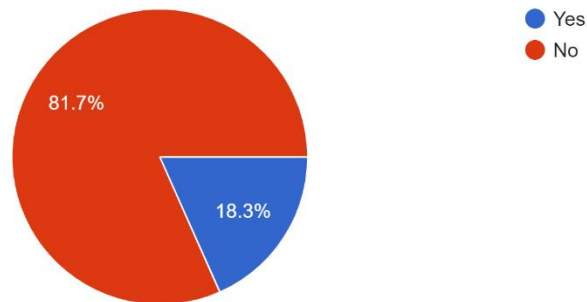

How much does it cost you per year to maintain your Level status? Please include the cost of training, travelling to courses, accommodation etc)?

169 responses

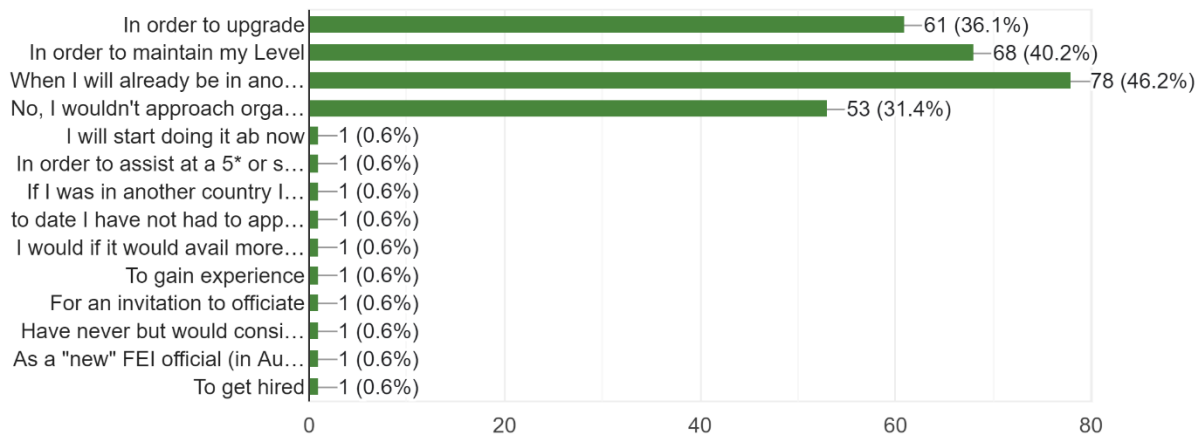

Do you NORMALLY approach organisers for invitations to officiate?

169 responses

Would you approach organisers for invitations in the following circumstances? Please tick all that apply

169 responses

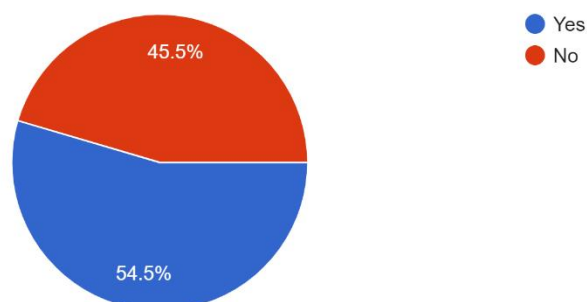

Top four answers:

1. When I will already be in another country, and would welcome the opportunity to officiate during my visit
2. In order to maintain my Level
3. In order to upgrade
4. No I wouldn't approach organisers for invitations

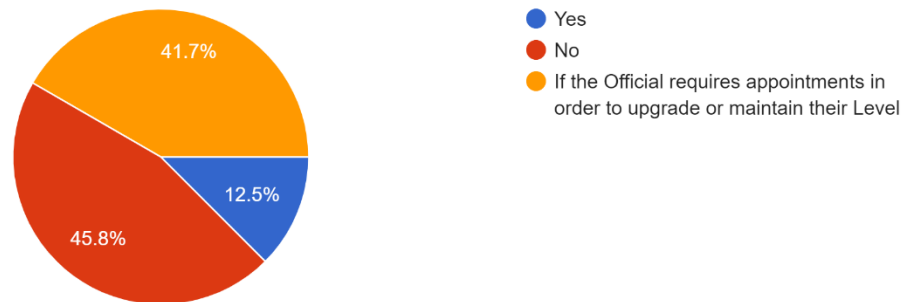

Do Officials approach you for invitations to officiate?

11 responses

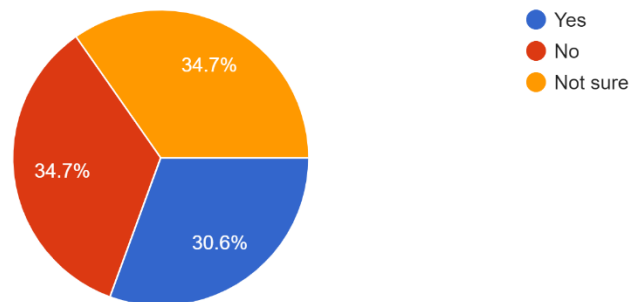

Do you see it as the Officials role to approach organisers for invitations?

24 responses

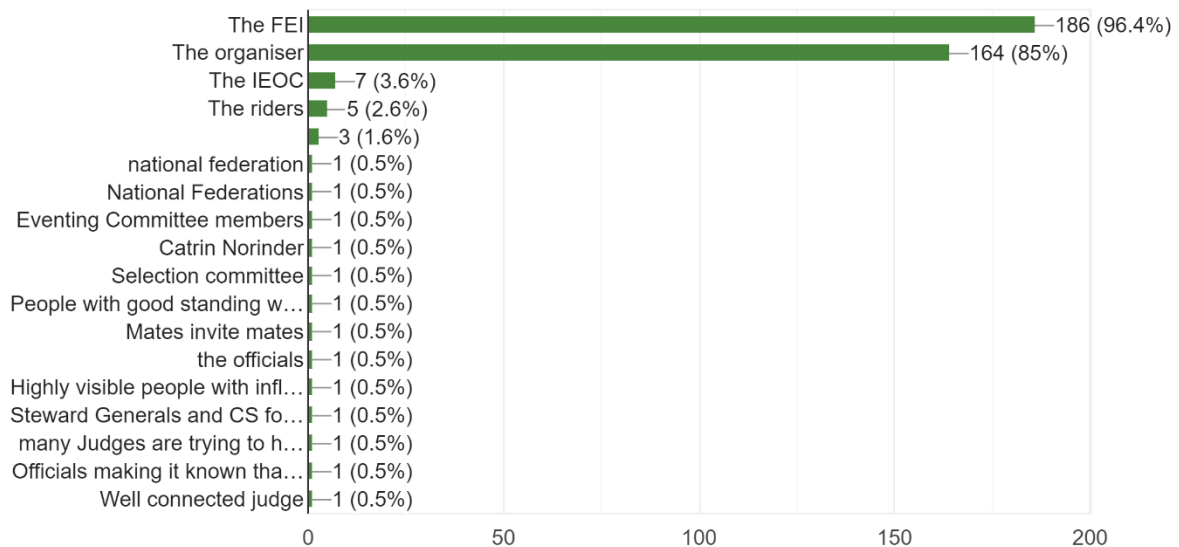

Do you know how Officials are appointed to officiate at 5* and Senior Championship events?

193 responses

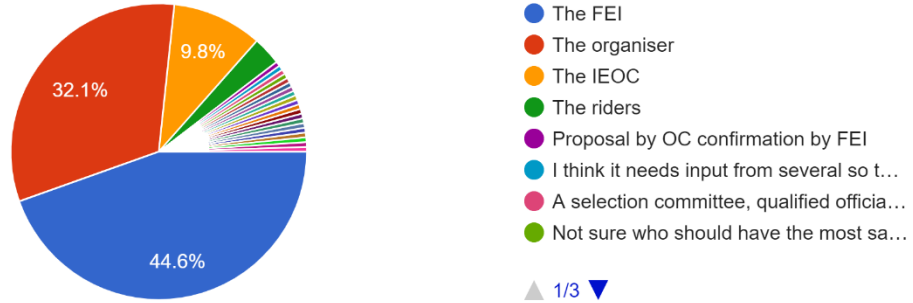

Who do you think is involved in the appointment of Officials to 5* and Senior Championship events? Please select all that you think apply

193 responses

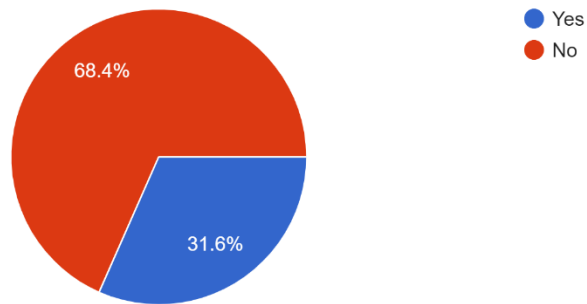

When appointing an Official to officiate at a 5* or Senior Championship Event, who do you think SHOULD have the largest say?

193 responses

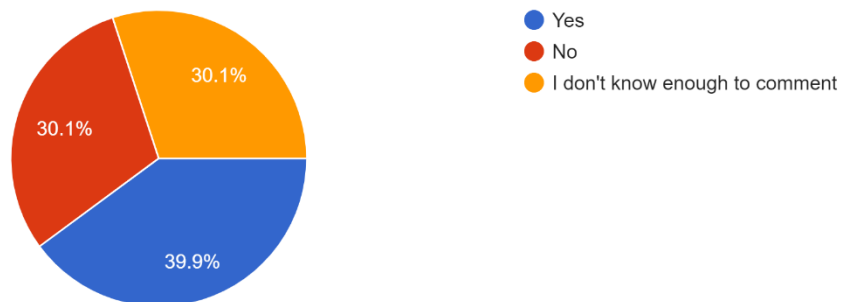

Should organisers have the choice whether they pay Officials?

193 responses

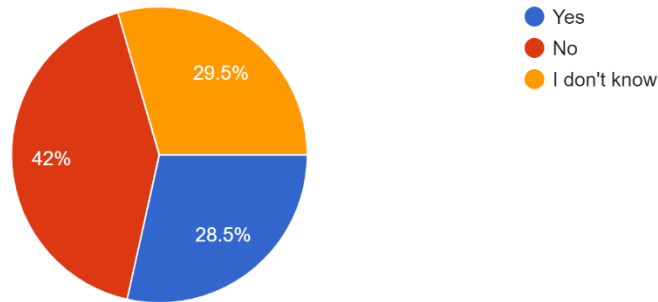

Are you in favour of the establishment of the new Level 4 Officials list?

193 responses

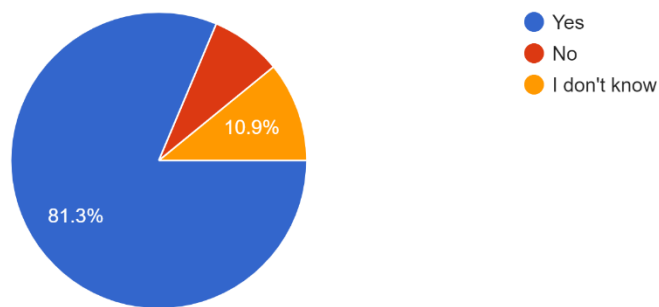

Do you think Level 4 will improve the quality of events?

193 responses

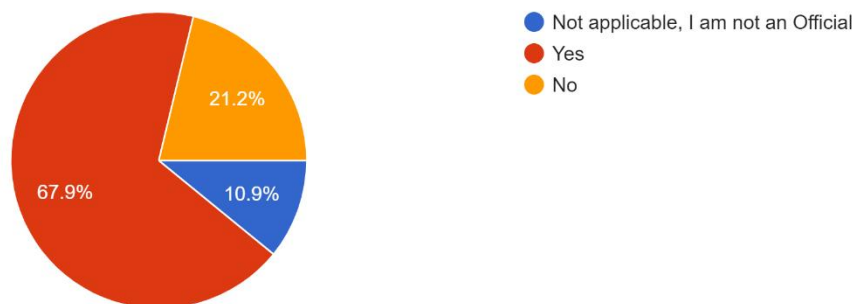

Do you think Level 4 Officials should help to mentor/train junior Officials?

193 responses

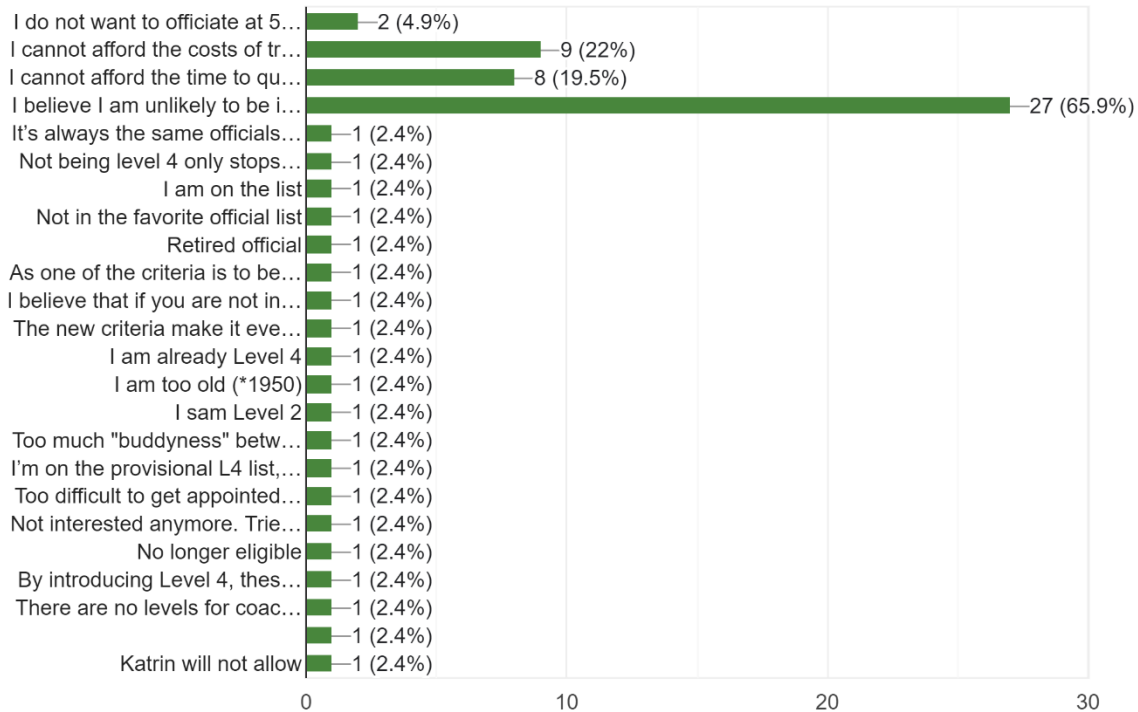

Will you aim for, or apply to upgrade to Level 4?

193 responses

You indicated you will not aim for, or apply to upgrade to Level 4, why not? Please select all that apply

41 responses

Top four answers:

1. I believe I am unlikely to be invited to officiate at 5* and Senior Championship events
2. I cannot afford the costs of training
3. I cannot afford the time to qualify
4. I do not want to officiate at 5* and Senior Championship events